

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

challenge today

Succeed together.

Dispute Resolution Associate

Apply
now

The Brussels Dispute Resolution practice of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP is expanding and is looking for a Dutch speaking associate and a French speaking associate. Our firm boasts a leading international Dispute Resolution practice with teams spread across Europe, Asia and the US advising global clients on a range of domestic, EU and international cases.

Your Tasks

- Representing clients throughout the trial and pre-trial phase before courts and arbitral tribunals and throughout investigations;
- Managing client relationships;
- Actively participating in business development activities and client events.

Your Profile

- You are Belgian law trained and have excellent academic credentials. A post-graduate degree is an asset;
- You are a Dutch or a French speaker with an excellent command of English;
- You have at least one year of experience in DR;
- You are an ambitious and highly motivated lawyer with first rate technical and commercial abilities driven to do high profile work;
- You are creative, curious and rigorous, and have excellent communication skills.

Our offer

You will work on a wide variety of matters together with our Brussels lawyers and our other offices. Regular participation in international technical and personal skills trainings. We offer a highly competitive compensation package.

Please visit our career website and submit your CV, cover letter and transcripts for each university year.

Your contact person at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP:

Els De Troyer
HR Officer

Place du Champ de Mars 5 / Marsveldplein 5
1050 Brussels